

VRS must be a mandated service. It is even more valuable to me as a consumer than TRS. Through using VCO my mother can talk to my children on the phone. I never dreamed that we would be able to have real in depth conversations over the telephone. Now we do! VRS changes peoples lives and gives them access to things they never dreamed they could do.